MONDAY, July 23d, 1744. [Numb. 539]

CHARLES TOWN, July 19.

ON Saturday Night (the 14th) His Excellency the Governor received His Majesty's DECLARATION OF WAR against the French King, by Express from the Northward, and this Day it was here proclaimed at the four following Places. 1, at the End of Broad street near the Council Chamber, 2, in the Centre of the great Market Square in old Churchstreet, 3, in Broughton's Battery, and 4, in Granville's Bastion: The Ceremony thereof began about eleven in the Morning, by His Excellency the Governor's walking in Procession from the Council-Chamber up Broad street, where the Charles-Town Regiment of Foot, commanded by the Honourable Colonel Pinckney, was drawn up, lining the Street in two Columns, with the two Troops of Horse-Guards covering the Front and Rear of each Column; between which, the Judges, Justices of the Peace, Registers, Officers of the Customs, and other Civil Officers walked, two and two, before his Excellency, and the Provost-Marshal carbefore him the Sword of State, which was drawn after the first Time of reading the Declaration, and was not again sheathed during the Solemnity. The Declaration was read by the Deputy Secretary of the Province, and proclaimed aloud by the Clerk of the Council. Behind the Governor, the Members of His Majesty's Council, and Captains of His Majesty's Ships of War, walked two and two, in Order, and were followed in like Manner by several other Persons of Rank, and Distinction.

The Columns of Horse and Foot mov'd regularly with equal Pace along with His Excellency, and after each Declaration there followed three general Huzza's with a Volley of small Arms of Horse and Foot, and at Broughton's Battery and Granville's Bastion aforenamed, and Fort Johnson on James-Island, there succeeded a Discharge of the Cannon.

The Ceremony ended at about three in the Afternoon, by the Governor's Return to the Council Chamber, from whence (after a general Volley was again fired by Horse and Foot) he invited the principal Officers to an Entertainment, prepared by his Order at Mr. Woolford's on the Bay; where the Evening was chearfully spent, in Toasts of Loyalty and Affection to his Majesty and the Royal Family, and of Success to his Majesty's Arms, against all His Enemies, particularly against those late detestable Abettors of a Popish Pretender to His Majesty's Crown and Kingdoms.

His Majesty's

DECLARATION
Of WAR against the French King.

GEORGE R.

THE Troubles, which broke out in Germany, on account of the Succession of the late Emperor Charles the sixth, having been begun and carried on, by the Instigation, Assistance, and Support of the French King, with a View to overturn the Balance of Power in Europe, and to extend the dangerous Influence of that Crown, in direct Violation of the solemn Guaranty of the Pragmatic Sanction, given by him in the Year One thousand seven hundred and thirty eight, in Consideration of the Cession of Lorraine; and We having, on Our Part, executed our Engagements for maintaining the Pragmatic Sanction, with that good Faith, which is inseparable from Us; and having opposed the Attempts made against the Dominions of the Queen of Hungary; We are not surprized, that our Conduct, in this Respect, should have drawn upon Us the Resentment of the French King, who has found his ambitious Views, in a great Measure, disappointed by the Assistance We have furnished to our Ally, unjustly attacked by him; or, that he should alledge it, as a principal Reason for declaring War against Us.

From the Time, that We found Ourselves obliged, for the Maintainance of the just Rights of our Subjects, to enter into a War with Spain, instead of observing an exact Neutrality, which We might have promised Ourselves on the Part of the French King, from whom we were even founded by Treaty to have demanded Assistance; he has given Encouragement and Support to Our Enemies, by conniving at his Subjects acting as Privateers under Spanish Commissions, both in Europe and America; and by sending in the Year One thousand seven hundred and forty, a strong Squadron into the American Seas, in order to prevent Us from prosecuting the just War, which We were carrying on against Spain, in those Parts; and we have the most authentick Proof that an Order was given to the Commander of the French Squadron, not only to act in a hostile Manner against our Ships, either jointly with the Spaniards, or separately; but even to concert Measures with Our Enemies, for attacking One of Our principal Dominions in America; a Duplicate of that Order, dated the seventh of October, One thousand seven hundred and forty, having fallen into the Hands of the Commander in Chief of Our Squadron in the West-Indies. This injurious Proceeding was greatly aggravated by the French Minister, at Our Court, having declared on Occasion of sending the said Squadron, that the French King was very far from having any Design, or Intention, of breaking with Us.

The same offensive Conduct was continued, on the Part of the French King, towards Us, by his Squadron in the Mediterranean, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and forty one, joining with and protecting the Ships of Our Enemies, in Sight of Our Fleet, which was preparing to attack them.

These unwarrantable Proceedings; the notorious Breach of Treaties, by repairing the Fortifications, and erecting New Works at Dunkirk; the open Hostilities lately committed against our Fleet in the Mediterranean; the Affront and Indignity offered to Us, by the Reception of the Son of the Pretender to Our Crown in the French Dominions; the Embarkation actually made at Dunkirk, of a considerable Body of Troops, notoriously designed for an Invasion of this Kingdom, in Favour of the Pretender to Our Crown; and the sending a Squadron of French Ships of War into the Channel, to support the said Embarkation and Invasion; will be lasting Monuments of the little Regard had by the French Court, for the most solemn Engagements, when the Observance of them is inconsistent with Interest, Ambition, or Resentment.

We cannot omit taking Notice of the unjust Insinuations contained in the French King's Declaration of War against Us, with respect to the Convention made at Hanover, in October, One thousand seven hundred and forty one. That Convention, regarding Our Electorate only, had no Relation to Our Conduct as King of Great Britain. The Allegations concerning it, are groundless and injurious: Our Proceedings in that Respect, having been perfectly consistent with that good Faith which We have always made the Rule of Our Actions.

It is unnecessary to mention the Objections made to the Behaviour of our Ministers in foreign Courts; since it is notorious, that the principal View, and Object, of the Negociations of the French Ministers in the several Courts of Europe, have been, either to stir up intestine Commotions in the Countries where they resided; or to create Differences and Misunderstandings between them and their respective Allies. The

The Charge of Piracy, Cruelty, and Barbarity, againſt Our Ships of War, is equally unjuſt and unbecoming; and We have all ſuch Proceedings ſo much in Abhorrence, that if any Practices of that Nature had been made appear to Us, We ſhould have taken effectual Care to put a Stop to them, and to have puniſhed the Offenders in the ſeverest Manner.

We being therefore indiſpenſibly obliged to take up Arms, and entirely relying on the Help of Almighty God, who knows the Uprightneſs of Our Intentions, have thought fit to declare, and do hereby declare War againſt the French King; and We will, in purſuance of ſuch Declaration, vigorouſly proſecute the ſame by Sea and Land; being aſſured of the ready Concurrence, and Aſſiſtance, of all Our loving Subjects in ſo juſt a Cauſe: And We do hereby will and require, Our Generals and Commanders of Our Forces, Our Commiſſioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain Our Lieutenants of Our ſeveral Counties, Governors of Our Forts and Garriſons, and all other Officers under them, by Sea Land, to do, and execute all Acts of Hoſtility, in the Proſecution of this War againſt the ſaid French King, his Vaſſals and Subjects, and to oppoſe their Attempts; willing and requiring, all Our Subjects to take Notice of the ſame, whom We hence forth ſtrictly forbid to hold any Correſpondence, or Communication with the Subjects of the French King: And We do hereby command Our own Subjects, and adverti ſe all Perſons of what Nation ſoever, not to tranſport or carry any Soldiers, Arms, Powder, Ammunition, or other contraband Goods, to any of the Territories, Lands, Plantations, or Countries of the ſaid French King; declaring that whatſoever Ship or Veſſel ſhall be met withal, tranſporting or carrying any Soldiers, Arms, Powder, Ammunition, or other contraband Goods, to any of the Territories, Lands, Plantations, or Countries of the ſaid French King, the ſame being taken, ſhall be condemned as good and lawful Prize. And whereas there are remaining in Our Kingdoms, divers of the Subjects of the French King, We do hereby declare our Royal Intention to be, that all the French Subjects, who ſhall demean themſelves dutifully towards Us, ſhall be ſafe in their Perſons and Eſtates.

Given at our Court of St. James's, the Twenty fifth Day of March, 1744 in the Seventeenth Year of Our Reign.

God ſave the King.

CHARLES TOWN, July 23.

We have at laſt received a long Account of the Engagement between his Majeſty's Fleet under the Command of Admiral Mathews, and the combin'd Fleets of France and Spain near Toulon, written by Admiral Mathews himſelf, dated in Mahon Harbour the 29th of February, and publiſhed from Whitehall the 21ſt of March laſt; by which Account it appears, that but few of the French Ships were engaged; That Admiral Lestock with his Diviſion never fired a Gun, tho' he was to Windward of the Enemy's Ships; that ſeveral of the British Ships ſuffered greatly in their Maſts and Rigging, and the Marlborough had 45 Men kill'd and 90 wounded; the Admiral had 9 kill'd and 40 wounded, and the Barfleur had 18 kill'd and 38 wounded. The only Ship taken or deſtroy'd in the whole Engagement, was one of the Spaniard's of 60 Guns, which having loſt all her Maſts, was burnt by Order of Admiral Mathews. The Admiral writes, that he intended to put to Sea again as ſoon as he had repaired the Damage ſuſtained in the late Engagement.

Since our laſt return'd from a Croize, his Majeſty's Ships the Tartar, Flamborough, and Spy.

On Wedneſday laſt arrived here Capt. Styles from Jamaica. He ſail'd from that Place with Sir Chaloner Ogle, and left him in Sight of Port Louis (on Hiſpaniola) 20 Days ago, in which Harbour there were upwards of 50 Sail of French Merchant-Ships, which the Admiral was then going to attack, and 'twas not doubted but he might take them all.

In Capt. Styles is come Paſſenger, Capt. Walter Gaven (late of the Sloop Honeſt Induſtry) who was taken by the Spaniards in his Paſſage from hence to St. Kitts, and carried into St. Domingo. By him we learn, that they are fitting out a great Number of Privateers at Jamaica, to cruize againſt the French, and that ſeveral Prizes were already brought in.

For ſeveral Days paſt we have had very bad Weather here. Mr. Yeomans's Schooner bound for New York, has been ſtruck by Lightning, and a young Lad on board belonging to Capt. Kirſlew of Boſton kill'd; ſhe has been obliged to put into Bull ſhead Inlet to refit. A ſmall Houſe at the North-Eaſt End of the Town was alſo ſtruck by Lightning. And ſeveral other ſmall Buildings in this Town, have ſuffered greatly in their Roofs, &c. by a Whirlwind.
